SAPAs are a group of Dartmouth Students invested in providing informed, empathic, and empowerment based support to students impacted by sexual and gender-based violence. They have completed a comprehensive training program and are equipped with specialized knowledge in gender-based violence, campus resources, and providing positive, peer-advocacy support to fellow students. If you or your friends have been affected by sexual assault or intimate partner violence, SAPAs are a trained peer resource available to help you.
Mae Hardebeck

Class Year: 2018

Major: Quantitative Social Science

Hometown: Needham, Massachusetts

Bio: I identify as an Asian-American queer cis woman. I’m interested in civil rights law and fighting inequities in the US and in the world. In my free time, I love being with my Ultimate team, and watching Netflix on second floor Foco.

Affiliations: Ultimate Frisbee, SAPA, not affiliated to greek life

Interesting fact: There was a fifth, female Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle named Venus de Milo
