

AMES MAJOR WORKSHEET
EAST ASIA CONCENTRATION

STUDENT: _____ CLASS: _____

COMPLETE THIS FORM IN CONSULTATION WITH YOUR ADVISER AND HAND IT IN TO THE PROGRAM OFFICE WITH A COPY OF YOUR MAJOR CARD SIGNED BY THE AMES CHAIR.

Name of Adviser: _____. Any regular member of the Program faculty with East Asia specialization can act as your adviser, subject to availability.

REQUIREMENTS:

- One course from the following list of foundational or pan-East Asian courses: AMES 11/Korean 10: Introduction to Korean Culture; Chinese 10/AMES 12: Introduction to Chinese Culture; Japanese 10/AMES 13: Introduction to Japanese Culture; Art History 67: Contemporary Arts of Asia; Government 50: International Relations of East Asia; History 73: Early Chinese Culture; History 74: Intellectual History of East Asia; History 77: Imperialism in Modern East Asia; Religion 10: The Religions of China:

No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
- Eight courses from the list of approved courses on the back of this form; up to four may be language courses (combining courses from other areas of concentration—Middle East or South/Southeast Asia—requires approval by the adviser and the AMES Chair of a written rationale); beginning with the Class of 2013, one course must be an interregional course, either AMES 40 or an approved substitute:

No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____
- A culminating experience, either AMES 91 or, by petition to the AMES Chair, an advanced seminar from another department or program; or, by approval of the AMES Steering Committee of a written proposal, AMES 86 (Advanced Independent Research) or AMES 87 (Honors Thesis):

No. _____ Title: _____ Term: _____

The minor in East Asian Studies consists of five non-language courses from the appended list of approved courses (beginning with the Class of 2013, one course must be an interregional course, either AMES 40 or an approved substitute) and a culminating experience, either AMES 91 or, by petition to the AMES Chair, an advanced seminar from another department or program; or, by approval of the AMES Steering Committee of a written proposal, AMES 86 (Advanced Independent Research).