The New Yorker's 20 under 40, 2010

This year's New Yorker Summer Fiction Issue features the writings of 20 promising authors, all of whom are under age 40. You can find the issue (June 14, 2010) in the Periodicals area. Below are listed works by the 20 authors that are held by Rice-Aron Library. (Click on a title to see its availability.)

Half of a yellow sun - Adichie, Chimamanda Ngozi
Call Number: FIC A235
ISBN: 1400044162
Re-creates the 1960s struggle of Biafra to establish an independent republic in Nigeria, following the intertwined lives of the characters through a military Biafran secession, and the resulting civil war.

A better angel : stories - Adrian, Chris
Call Number: FIC A243
ISBN: 9780374289904
The stories in "A Better Angel" describe the terrain of human suffering—illness, regret, mourning, sympathy—in the most unusual of ways, from an author with wit and inventiveness.
