Friday, May 9, 2008
Fourth Annual Dartmouth Symposium on Substance Use
Collis Student Center, Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire

Illuminating Substance Use
Key Contributions Dartmouth Alumni and Students
A conference for addiction professionals, educators, healthcare providers, justice workers, Dartmouth students and alumni and other community members

8:45-9:15 Treatment of Co-occurring Psychiatric and Substance Use Disorders.
Edward Nunes, M.D. ’77, Columbia University.

9:45-10:15 Road Recovery: Harnessing the Power of Music to Support Youth Recovery. Scott Bienenfeld ’92. NYU School of Medicine and Albert Einstein College of Medicine.

10:15-10:30 Road Recovery Jam and Recovery Session. College students from the New York City area.

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-12:00 Engaging Family and Communities in Prevention and Recovery.
- Preventing Death from Alcohol Toxicity: A Memorial Tribute of Family & Friends. Alex Cushman ’08
- It Works in the Field. Carl Swenson ’55
- Family & Friends of Persons Addicted to Alcohol. Howland Russell ’54.

12:00-1:00 Lunch A list of restaurants/cafés within walking distance is included in folder.

1:00-1:45 Meaning and Addiction in Four Souls. Louise Erdrich ’76.

2:15-2:45 Harsh Community Realities: Opportunities for Prevention. Eva Smith, M.D. ’74, Indian Health Service.

2:45-3:00 Break

3:00-3:45 Rez Dogs and Crow Dreams: A Native American Alcoholic and his Family. Lori Arviso Alvord ’79, M.D.

THERE WILL BE A DISPLAY OF EDUCATIONAL AND RESOURCE MATERIALS IN COLLIS 101, 8:00AM – 4:30 PM.