1. A regression of investment income on age, controlling for amount invested, produces a larger coefficient on age using OLS than LAD. This could be because....

A. Investment income is positively skewed
B. LAD estimates a different parameter than OLS
C. There are outliers
D. The mean is above the median in the outcome variable