Wednesday, March 29, 2017

 Pediatric Grand Rounds:
“Worse than death? Ethical struggles at the border of viability.”
Steven A. Ringer, MD, PhD
8-9 am
Location: DHMC, Auditorium E

If you are unable to attend and would like to view Grand Rounds live on your computer please use this link:

 Noon Conference: 12-1 pm
Location: DHMC, Level 5A
Resident Case Presentation

Steven A. Ringer MD, PhD Section Chief of Neonatology at the Children’s Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock

Dr. Ringer is a Board Certified Neonatologist. He received his medical and doctor of philosophy degrees from Case Western Reserve in 1982. He completed a residency in pediatrics at Rainbow Babies and Children’s Hospital in 1985 followed by a fellowship in Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine at the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Brigham & Women’s Hospital and Boston Children’s Hospital. He also completed a fellowship in Medical Ethics at Harvard Medical School in 2007.

Dr. Ringer joined the Children’s Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock in 2015 as the Section Chief of Neonatology. He has been active with the Neonatal Resuscitation Program of the American Academy of Pediatrics /American Heart Association since its inception in 1988.