

Rossi, and Neil Sedaka tell their stories and those of Jackie Mason, Sid Caesar, and many others. Wistful, pointed, funny, sometimes pained, the stories span nearly a century and evoke an experience that in many of its details exists now only as memory. Oversized and bountifully illustrated, the book will delight and inform anyone who knows of the Catskills only through hearsay or such movies as Dirty Dancing and Broadway Danny Rose—and will be treasured nostalgia for all those who may have spent a special summer or two of their own in the Mountains.

ALSO BY HARVEY FROMMER:

NEW YORK CITY BASEBALL
RED ON RED
PRIMITIVE BASEBALL

AUTHOR PUBLICITY TOUR:

NEW YORK CITY, PHILADELPHIA,
ALBANY, MIAMI

ADVERTISING IN:

THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW
THE NEW YORK TIMES DAILY EDITIONS
MIAMI HERALD

Harvey Frommer and Myrna Katz-Frommer have written over a score of books singly or jointly, many on sports topics, along with numerous articles on Jewish themes. They live in North Woodmere, New York.

MORE THAN 100 BLACK-AND-WHITE PHOTOS

NONFICTION • 8 X 10 • 256 PAGES • 0-15-105210-7 • $24.95 • APRIL