

The Visitors

Perform at the Family Place's Gingerbread Festival

Ah, winter--the holidays, the snow, and the harmonious sounds of the Visitors! In December, HR's musical group, comprising James Burger (harmonica, percussion, and xylophone), Pamela Stamnas (lead vocals), and David Wheel (twelve-string guitar), performed a set of seasonal and children's songs at the Gingerbread Festival in Norwich, Vermont.

Nearly 850 people attended the event, which was a benefit for the Family Place, a parent/child center serving families with young children in the Upper Valley. Executive Director Elaine Guenet was enthusiastic, noting that "the Family Place staff and board truly appreciated the Visitors reaching out and donating their time to the Gingerbread Festival. Their music really added to this festive family occasion!"

On January 21, the Visitors held their annual winter concert at the Dartmouth Child Care Center for an audience of more than forty pre-schoolers.

Photo: Jennifer Cocklin

The Visitors (from left): James Burger, Pamela Stamnas, and David Wheel.