Lodging and Meals Reservations

A limited number of rooms can be had at the Hanover Inn, a deluxe hotel on campus for $97 per night, first come, first served. For those staying at the Inn the Dining Plan is optional though highly recommended.

We have reserved rooms in the newest Dartmouth dormitories — McLane Hall and Fahey Hall. The buildings are fully air conditioned and include single and double rooms. Bathrooms are not en-suite, but ample shower rooms, toilets and lavatories are supplied separately on each floor. Each floor also includes comfortable lounges and kitchen areas; there is even a grand piano. These accommodations cost $47 per night and along with them you must purchase a declining balance meal plan from Dartmouth Dining Services. DDS offers nine different dining venues, including kosher/halal and vegetarian options. A $72 card will buy you four breakfasts, three lunches, and 2 dinners. Other meals will be arranged specifically for the conference.
