

JENNIFER M. LIND

Assistant Professor of Government

Dartmouth College
Silsby Hall 6108
Hanover, NH 03755
603.646.2282, Jennifer.Lind@Dartmouth.edu

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Department of Political Science, 2004.
- M.P.I.A. University of California, San Diego, Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies, 1996.
- B.A. University of California, Berkeley, English (summa cum laude), 1991.

BOOK

Sorry States: Apologies in International Politics (Ithaca: Cornell University Press, 2008).
Cornell Studies in Security Affairs. Paperback edition, 2010.

PUBLICATIONS IN REFEREED JOURNALS

“Democratization and Stability in East Asia,” International Studies Quarterly, forthcoming Summer 2011.

“Pyongyang’s Survival Strategy: Tools of Authoritarian Control in North Korea,” International Security, Vol. 35, no. 1 (Summer 2010), pp. 44-76. Co-authored with Daniel Byman.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Security Studies Vol. 18, no. 3 (2009), pp. 517-556.

“Sorry States and the Research Program on Memory in International Relations,” in “Roundtable Discussion on Jennifer Lind’s Sorry States: Apologies in International Politics,” Journal of East Asian Studies Vol. 9, no. 4, (Sept-Dec 2009). With Thomas Berger, Charles Glaser, and Mike Mochizuki.

“Pacifism or Passing the Buck? Testing Theories of Japanese Security Policy,” International Security Vol. 29, No. 1 (Summer 2004).

Correspondence, “Spirals, Security, and Stability in East Asia,” International Security Vol. 28, No. 4 (Spring 2000). In response to Thomas J. Christensen, “China, Japan, and the Security Dilemma in East Asia.”

“Gambling with Globalism: Japanese Financial Flows to North Korea and the Sanctions Policy Option,” Pacific Review Vol. 10, No. 3 (1997).

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

“The Haunt of History in Japan’s Foreign Relations,” in Handbook of Japanese Politics (London: Routledge: forthcoming).

“The Once and Future Kim: Succession and Stasis in North Korea,” Foreign Affairs, electronic version, October 2010.

“Apology Diplomacy at Hiroshima,” The Atlantic, electronic version, August 13, 2010.

“Symbolic Gestures: Lessons for East Asia from a Compromise on History in America,” Global Asia, June 2010.

“The Perils of Apology: What Japan Shouldn’t Learn from Germany,” Foreign Affairs, Vol. 88, no. 3 (May/June 2009), pp. 132-146.

“Next of Kim,” Foreign Policy, electronic version, June 2009.

“Dangerous Games,” The Atlantic, March 2006.

“Think Again: The East Asian Textbook Dispute,” Foreign Policy, electronic version, August 2005.

“Memory, Apologies, and International Reconciliation,” Foreign Policy Research Institute E-Note, November 2008.

“Continuity and Change in Japanese Security Policy,” in N.S. Sisodia and G.V.C. Naidu, eds., Changing Security Dynamic in Eastern Asia: Focus on Japan (New Delhi: Institute for Defense and Strategic Analyses, 2005).

(with Bruce W. Bennett) “Transitioning to Korean Unification: Implications for U.S. and ROK Force Requirements,” RAND Project Memorandum, July 2001.

WORKING PAPERS

“The Collapse of North Korea: Military Missions and Requirements.” (with Bruce Bennett) Under review.

“Regime Type and National Remembrance.” In progress.

“Energy Competition in East Asia.” In progress.

“The Evolution of Nationalism.” In progress.

CONFERENCES

Paper presenter, "The Collapse of North Korea: Military Missions and Requirements," Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association, Washington, D.C., September 2010.

Paper presenter, "Regime Type and National Remembrance," at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association, February 2010, New Orleans, LA.

Discussant, "Dokdo, Takeshima, Liancourt Rocks: Rethinking Territorial Disputes in East Asia," SAIS-Johns Hopkins University, June 2009.

Paper presenter, "Regime Type and the Politicization of Memory," at "Political Dynamics of Historical Memories in East Asia," University of Hawaii at Manoa, February 13-14, 2009.

Paper presenter and panel organizer, "Understanding Regime Stability in North Korea," at the Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association, Boston, MA, August 28-31, 2008.

Paper presenter and panel organizer, "Democratization and Stability in East Asia," at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association, March 2008, San Francisco, CA.

Panel organizer and chair, "Problems in East Asian Security," at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association, March 2008, San Francisco, CA.

Discussant, "Nuclear Logics: Contrasting Trajectories in East Asia and the Middle East," Roundtable at the Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association, March 2008, San Francisco, CA.

Paper presenter and roundtable organizer, "Explaining Regime Stability in North Korea." Roundtable of North Korea experts held at Georgetown University, January 17, 2008.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

"The Collapse of North Korea: Military Missions and Requirements," The Fletcher School, Tufts University, Medford, MA, November 2010.

"The Collapse of North Korea: Military Missions and Requirements," Security Studies Roundtable, Department of National Security Decision Making, Naval War College, Newport, RI. September 2010.

"Apologies in International Politics," Department of Government/East Asian Studies, Wesleyan University, May 2010.

"Regime Type and National Remembrance," Institute of International Studies, Fudan University, Shanghai, China. March 2010.

“Apologies in International Politics,” School of International Studies, Peking University, Beijing, China. March 2010.

“Stability Operations and Military Requirements in Transitioning Korea,” Tsinghua University, Beijing, China. March 2010.

“Stability Operations and Military Requirements in Transitioning Korea,” Center for Strategic and International Studies, Washington, D.C., January 21, 2010.

“Apologies in International Politics,” UTStarcom Distinguished Speaker Series, Asian Studies Program, Georgetown University, January 21, 2010.

“Comparing Historical Reconciliation: Germany and Japan,” American Institute for Contemporary German Studies, John Hopkins University, January 20, 2010.

“Apologies in International Politics,” PHP Research Institute, Tokyo, Japan, November 13, 2009.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan, November 10, 2009.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Institute of Contemporary Japanese Studies, Temple University, Tokyo, Japan, November 9, 2009.

“Regime Type and National Remembrance,” Center for East Asian Studies, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan, November 12, 2009.

“Regime Type and National Remembrance,” East Asia Institute, Seoul, South Korea, November 20, 2009.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Alexander Hamilton Center, New York University, March 25, 2009.

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” Solomon Asch Center for Ethnopolitical Conflict, Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, PA, March 16, 2009.

“Democratization and Stability in East Asia,” Center for Research on International and Global Studies, University of California, Irvine, February 26, 2009.

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center, Stanford University, January 21, 2009.

“Why Apologize? Japan’s History Problem in East Asia,” Program on U.S.-Japan Relations, Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, November 18, 2008.

“Apologies and International Politics,” Department of Political Science, University of California, Berkeley, February 7, 2008.

“Explaining the Survival of the North Korean Regime,” Center for Peace and Security Studies, Georgetown University, January 18, 2008.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Olin Institute for Strategic Studies, Harvard University, April 2, 2007.

“Apologies in International Politics,” Department of Political Science, Yale University, March 27, 2007.

TEACHING

Assistant Professor, Department of Government, Dartmouth College (undergraduate)
East Asian International Relations
Memory, Nationalism, and War
International Politics

Visiting Professor and Postdoctoral Fellow

Department of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania (undergraduate and doctoral)
East Asian International Relations (Fall 2005)
Memory and Justice After War (Fall 2005)

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Fellow, U.S.-Japan Network for the Future, sponsored by the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation and the Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership. Selected to participate in a 2-year program aimed at identifying and supporting the next generation of American public policy intellectuals who study Japan. Meetings in Washington, D.C., Montana, and Tokyo. (2009-2011)

Member, Task Force, “North Korea Inside Out: Policy Implications of the DPRK Political Economy.” Organized by Asia Society and the University of California’s Institute on Global Conflict and Cooperation. New York, May 11, 2009.

Discussant, “East Asian Leadership,” meeting of the National Intelligence Council, sponsored by the U.S. Director of National Intelligence, Washington, D.C., February 20, 2008.

Consultant, RAND, Santa Monica, California, 1999-present.

Researched projects for the Office of the Secretary of Defense regarding potential scenarios for Korean unification, and the U.S. military missions they might require. Analyzed military requirements and force structure implications. Security Clearance: Secret.

Staff Analyst, U.S. Department of Defense, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D.C., 2000.

Analyzed long-term threats to U.S. security in the East Asian region. Presented briefings and wrote working papers in preparation for the 2001 Quadrennial Defense Review.

Intern, Congressional Budget Office, National Security Division, Washington, D.C., 1998.

Researched topics related to U.S. military forces in Asia, focusing on the question of maintaining U.S. forces in post-unification Korea.

Translator/Marketing Copywriter, Aprica Kassai, Inc., Osaka, Japan, 1995

Translated marketing materials from Japanese to English and English to Japanese. Wrote advertising copy for English-speaking markets. Interpreted at meetings with foreign visitors.

Import Account Manager, Toyota Tsusho America, Fremont, California, 1992-1994

Managed Japanese import shipments for automotive parts manufacturers in support of the GM/Toyota factory (NUMMI) in Fremont. Utilized spoken and written Japanese daily.

Columnist, Tagawa Bunkajoho Newspaper, Tagawa, Japan, 1991-1992

Wrote monthly column (in Japanese) on issues of Japanese and American culture and politics.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

Fellowship, Program on Peace, Governance, and Development in East Asia. Fellowship for conducting field work and giving talks at three participating institutions in East Asia. East Asia Institute, Seoul, South Korea. 2009-2010.

Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Department of Political Science, Christopher H. Browne Center for International Politics, University of Pennsylvania, 2005-2006.

AFFILIATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Co-Founder and Director, Security Studies Young Faculty Network. I manage membership and plan all meetings for a professional network of junior faculty scholars engaged in policy relevant, qualitative security studies.

Member, Women in International Security, American Political Science Association, International Studies Association.

Referee, Comparative Politics, Journal of East Asian Studies, Security Studies, International Security, Journal of Peace Research, Pacific Affairs, Pacific Review, European Journal of International Relations.

MEDIA

Interviewed by Los Angeles Times, Radio Free Asia, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal.

“The Bloody Sunday Apology,” France 24: The Debate, on France 24 television. June 18, 2010.

“Giving North Korea the Bomb,” 38North.org, October 2010. (with Daryl G. Press)

“The Future of North Korea: A Conversation with James Church and Jennifer Lind,” 38North.org, September 2010.

“Virginia’s Lessons for East Asia’s History Problem,” Asabi Shinbun/International Herald Tribune, May 19, 2010.

Author interview, www.rorotoko.com (for Sorry States: Apologies in International Politics), September 2009.

“Parenting Pyongyang,” Huffington Post, August 1, 2009.

“A New Solution for Japan’s History Problem,” International Herald Tribune, June 25, 2009.

“A Sorry State of Affairs,” Dartmouth Alumni Magazine, January/February 2008.

Japanese-language

“In Order to Solve Japan’s History Problem, Study Adenauer’s Model,” Asabi Shinbun GLOBE Magazine, no. 12, June 22, 2009.

“Thinking about Japan’s History Problem and East Asian Reconciliation,” Foreign Affairs Report no. 5 (June 2009). Japanese translation of Foreign Affairs article, May/June 2009.

COMMUNITY/OUTREACH

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” AMES Student/Faculty Talk, April 28, 2009.

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” Rockefeller Center for Public Policy, Dartmouth College, January 2009.

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” LIFE Society, Riverside, Calif., September 2008.

“The Rise of China,” ILEAD, Dartmouth College, May 2008.

“The Rise of China,” Adventures in Learning, New London, NH, May 2008.

“How to Not Fight a War with China,” MIT Lincoln Laboratory, Lexington, MA, May 2008.

“Apologies and International Reconciliation,” Draper Laboratory, Cambridge, MA, September 7, 2007.

LANGUAGES

Japanese (advanced), Foreign Service Institute level 3+
French (reading); Spanish (rudimentary)