The Harvard Summer Research Program in Kidney Medicine (HPKM) Summer Undergraduate Research Opportunity 2014 - April 1st application Deadline

PROGRAM SPECIFICS:

• The Harvard Summer Research Program in Kidney Medicine (HPKM) is a summer program for college undergraduates which offers 8 weeks of research, housing accommodations and $1000 stipend to participants
• Work with world class investigators at Harvard Medical School
• Experience how Kidney disease affects lives throughout unique clinical experiences
• Attend weekly core curriculum sessions which introduces the functions and dysfunctions of the kidney
• Present your research at a national symposium in Nashville, TN

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS:

• Must be a US citizen or permanent resident
• Must be enrolled in an undergraduate degree program
• Must be committed to entire 8+ week program (June 1 – August 1)

Please visit http://brighamkidney.org/hskp/ for more information and application process.
Email HSKP@partners.org with any questions.
HARVARD UNDERGRADUATE SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM IN KIDNEY MEDICINE

PROGRAM SPECIFICS

- The Harvard Summer Research Program in Kidney Medicine (HPKM) is a summer program for college undergraduates which offers 8 weeks of research, housing accommodations and $1000 stipend to participants
- Work with world class investigators at Harvard Medical School
- Experience how Kidney disease affects lives throughout unique clinical experiences
- Attend weekly core curriculum sessions which introduces the functions and dysfunctions of the kidney
- Present your research at a national symposium in Nashville, TN

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a US citizen or permanent resident
- Must be enrolled in an undergraduate degree program
- Must be committed to entire 8+ week program (June 1 – August 1)

Please visit http://brighamkidney.org/hskp/ for more information and application process.

Email HSKP@partners.org with any questions.

Brigham & Women’s Hospital and Harvard Medical School are Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employers. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.