The internships are with a global health organization called Nyaya Health, which works with Partners in Health, Nepal’s Ministry of Health and Population, Brigham and Womens Hospital, and others to deliver transparent, data-driven health care to Nepal’s rural poor. The internships are in New York, and while they are not medical in nature, they provide the opportunity for students to work at a well-respected global health organization and see other facets of global health care.

Short Summary:
- Do you want to spend your summer in the heart of NYC working to help Nyaya Health deliver health care to the world’s poorest? We’d love to have you apply. Applications are being accepted on an immediate, rolling basis for a Development Assistant, Design Assistant, Marketing Assistant, and Finance & Operations Assistant. Please visit http://www.nyayahealth.org/join-us/internship/ for detailed job descriptions and instructions on how to apply.

The Opportunity:
- Summer Internships in Nyaya Health's NYC office!
- Timeframe: June 2 - Aug 15 (or later!)
- Compensation: These are unpaid positions.

The Specific Positions:
- Development Assistant
- Design Assistant
- Marketing Assistant
- Finance & Operations Assistant

Please let me know if you need any additional information from me.

Thank you,
Emily

---
Emily Fletcher | Presidential Fellow in Global Health
The Dartmouth Center for Health Care Delivery Science
T: 603-646-1293 | E: emily.e.fletcher@dartmouth.edu
W: http://tdc.dartmouth.edu