

SECTION 10950

BUILDING SPECIALTIES

PART 1 – GENERAL

The architect shall provide receptacles for extinguishing cigarettes at each door into the building. The location shall be respective of the architecture and readily available for use. The college shall be included in the choice of location for these receptacles. This choice shall be made early in the development of the exterior elevations of the building.

END OF SECTION