Substance-Free Housing

Substance-free housing is provided for students who have a serious commitment to sharing an alcohol and drug-free living experience.. All students are expected to comply with college alcohol and drug policies regardless of where they live; if you choose this option, you are committing yourself to additional policies that govern substance-free housing, as outlined in the "College Residence Policies and Terms."

Are you committed to living in a substance-free environment? Yes No No Preference

Housing for Medical or Disability-related Needs

- If you anticipate residential accommodations related to a medical condition or to a disability, please refer to our at <http://www.dartmouth.edu/~orl/housing/special.html> and complete the forms by the appropriate deadline.

"Special Housing for Medical Needs."

Will you be applying for special accommodations? Yes No

East Wheelock Program

The East Wheelock Cluster houses a residential program that encourages collaboration and participation among students, staff, and faculty in order to develop a unique residential community that integrates personal, social, and intellectual growth. If you would like to participate in the program, please answer the following questions on an additional sheet. Responses should be typewritten and limited to 250 words each. Due to the limited availability of spaces, responses will be screened to determine which students will benefit from and contribute the most as residents to the program. Students who are not assigned to the cluster are still welcomed at programs and events.

1. Explain what aspects of the East Wheelock Program appeal to you most, and describe what you will contribute to the East Wheelock community.
2. Of the following activities, which would you be interested in participating? Which would you be interested in taking a leadership role? The activities are: Community service projects, Cluster Council, multicultural experiences, faculty/student dinners, bringing in guest lectures, and music and arts events (coffee houses, recitals, guest performers).
3. If you could have dinner with any one academic, artistic, or otherwise "established" person still living, who would you choose, why, and what would you want to talk about?

Please use this space to provide any additional information about yourself you feel may be important as we make roommate matches. (Feel free to attach an additional sheet if desired.)

Dartmouth College Residence Policy

Dartmouth is a residential college and all transfer students are required to live on campus for their first three enrolled terms.

I confirm that I have read, understand and agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this housing application/contract as set forth in "Welcome Home" and other specific documents and web sites. I also agree to occupy the space to which I am assigned.
