NIH Change in Continuous Submission Policy for Reviewers

- Changes to policy effective July 8, 2011
- Please review information found at this link if you have Peer Reviewers submitting NIH applications

American Heart Association

- Applicants are required to either be an AHA Professional Member or to pay $100 per application submission.
- When does this start? Beginning with the winter 2012 deadlines
- Why? This helps defer the administrative cost of processing applications.

AHA- Continued

Is anyone exempt from this requirement?

Yes! Applicants to undergraduate student programs and medical student programs are exempt from the requirement, due to the short tenure and small dollar amounts for these awards.
