

Résumé 10/05

Robert Sokol
Professor of Sociology, Emeritus
Research Professor

Office: Department of Sociology
Dartmouth College
Hanover, N.H. 03755, USA
(603) 646-2637

Home: 6 Storrs Road
Hanover, N.H. 03755, USA
(603) 646-2702

E-mail: robert.sokol@dartmouth.edu

Education:

Ph.D. Columbia University, 1961
Princeton University Graduate College, 1949-50

A.B. Long Island University, 1949

Academic Appointments

2003- Research Professor in Sociology
1996- Dartmouth College, Professor of Sociology, Emeritus
1961-96 Dartmouth College, Assistant Professor to Professor, Dept. Sociology
1961-63 Dartmouth Medical School, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Psychiatry

1956-61 Tufts University, Instructor to Assistant Professor, Dept. of Sociology
1954-55 Boston University, Lecturer, Dept. of Sociology and Anthropology
1953-56 Harvard University, Research Assistant, Center for Field Studies of the Graduate School of Education

Books:

Laboratory Manual for Introductory Sociology, Harper and Row, N.Y., 1970, reissued by Addison-Wesley, Reading, Massachusetts, 1975, 148 pp.

SOLAB Codebook (with E.D. Meyers, Jr.), Series on Instructional Materials Using Computers, CONDUIT, University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, 1974, 38 pp.

Instructor's Manual to Accompany Laboratory Manual for Introductory Sociology,
Harper and Row, N.Y., 1971, 86 pp.

The Popularity of Educational Television in a Suburban Community, Educational Television and Radio Center, Ann Arbor, 1959, 119 pp.

Articles:

Power Orientation and McCarthyism, American Journal of Sociology, January, 1968.

Social Norms in Television Watching, with H. Kent Geiger, American Journal of Sociology, Sept., 1959.

Emotional Adjustment, Social Disorganization, and Psychiatric Treatment, with B. Segal and R. J. Weiss, American Sociological Review, August, 1965.

Research Exercises for Introductory Sociology: The Data Card Technique, American Sociologist, February, 1968.

Emotional Impairment, Academic Potential, and Withdrawal in a Male Undergraduate Population, with R. J. Weiss and B. Segal, Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease, August, 1965.

Testing A Campaign for Educational Television, Journal of Advertising Research, Sept., 1962.

Educational Television in Boston, with K. Geiger, in The Impact of Educational Television, edited by Wilbur Schram, University of Illinois Press, Urbana, 1960.

Books in Preparation:

1. Consequences of Success: Class and Status in an Affluent Suburb
2. Dartmouth Student Subcultures: 1950 - 2000
3. Micro Applied Social Research

Papers Read at Meetings

The Political Life of a 25 Year Panel, read at the Chicago Meeting of the Amer. Sociol.
Assoc. August 1999.

Perception of a Community's Social Structure: Class, Status, and Other Frames of Reference, read at San Francisco Meeting of the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. August 1998.

The Life Course and Self-Defined Status Inconsistency: Some Political Snapshots, read at the Toronto Meeting of the Amer. Sociological Assoc. Aug.1997.

Fragments of Personality: Change and Stability Through 25 Years, read at the Washington Meeting of The Gerontological Society of America, Nov. 1996.

Change Amidst Community Stability, read at the Eastern Sociological Meeting in Boston, March, 1996.

Some Factors Associated with Child Abuse Potential, read at the San Francisco meeting of the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. Meeting, August 1976.

The Radical Right: A Panel Study of McCarthyism and Birchism, read at the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. Meeting, August 1966.

Liberal and Conservative Responses to Alienation, read at the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. Meeting, August 1964.

Status Inconsistency: An Attempt to Replicate Previous Results, with M. Zelditch, Jr., read at the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. Meeting, August 1961.

The Television Behavior and Attitudes of Influentials, read at the Amer. Sociol. Assoc. Meeting, August 1959.

Reports of Applied Social Research

Report to the Dresden Athletic Fields Committee and the Dresden District School Board: Results From a Survey of Dresden School District Residents Regarding Plans for an Athletic Fields Bond, March 2005, 113 pp.

Report to the Hanover Town Meeting Task Force: Results of Questionnaire Survey of Hanover Residents Concerning Their Views and Preferences About the Organization of Town Meeting, 2004, 46pp.

Report of the 1994 Survey of Residents for the Hanover Planning Board, Hanover Town Planning Board, 1994, 133pp.

Report of the 1981 Survey of Hanover Residents, Hanover Town Planning Board, 1982, 160 pp.

Report to the Planned Parenthood Health Center of the Upper Valley: Results of the 1974 Upper Valley Health Survey, 1975, 26 pp.

How Golden the Years: To Retire or Not to Retire: The Dartmouth College Class of 1929, 1973, 43 pp.

Report to the Hanover School Board: Reasons for the Defeat of Two School Bond Issues, 1967, 89 pp.

Report on the Wellesley, Massachusetts Teacher Dissatisfaction Study, 1957, 75 pp.

Other Reports

Data Card Assignments for Introductory Sociology and an Evaluation of the Technique, Report to the National Science Foundation, mimeo. 1965, 111 pp.

The Dartmouth Student, with C.A. Sykes, 1963, 112 pp.

Statistical Profiles of Dartmouth College Fraternities, 1958-61, 1962, 54 pp.

Current Research:

1. A generation of changing perceptions, attitudes, and behaviors of social class and status: A 25-year panel study of Winchester, Massachusetts.
2. Fifty-year comparisons of attitudes, perceptions, and behavior of Dartmouth College students.

Research and Educational Development Grants:

2003-05	$6,000	Christian R. Johnson Endeavor Foundation (For research on undergraduate stresses and consequences)
1974-76	$7,500	Spaulding-Potter Trusts (For a regional health survey).
1971-74	$15,900	National Science Foundation (For research on subjective status inconsistency).
1971-72	$5,000	National Institutes of Health, U.S. Public Health Service (For research on subjective status inconsistency).
1964	$4000	Anti-Defamation League for research on racial and religious prejudice.
1958-59	$2,000	Educational Television and Radio Center, Ann Arbor (For research on resistances to educational television).
1967	$4,700	U.S. Office of Education, Title VI Matching Equipment Grant Program for purchase of data sets and data processing equipment for Dartmouth Sociology Laboratory.

- 1964-66      $4,500      National Science Foundation, Undergraduate Instructional Scientific Equipment Program, for data processing equipment for Dartmouth Sociology Laboratory.
- 1963-65      $37,200      National Science Foundation, Course Content Improvement Program, for evaluation of Data Card teaching technique for Introductory Sociology.

Professional Activities:

- 1990s      Consultant and surveyor for Hanover: Howe Library, Town Planning Board, and the Dresden School Committee
- 1986-88      Consultant to law firms and transportation companies
- 1984      Consulting Editor, Sociological Focus
- 1981      Research consultant, Nevison & Associates
- 1980-94      Research consultant for Hanover Town Planning Board
- 1980      Book Reviewer, Contemporary Sociology
- 1978-95      Lecturer for Dartmouth Alumni Seminars at Princeton; Boston; Washington, DC ; Minneapolis; Pittsburg; Galveston; Portland, Me; Worcester, Mass.; North Bergen, N.J.; and Hanover, N.H.
- 1977      Book Reviewer, Social Forces
- 1976      Advisory Editor, Teaching Sociology
- 1975-77      Research proposal evaluator, National Science Foundation
- 1974-77      Executive Council of the Section on Undergraduate Education, American Sociological Association
- 1974      Chair of session on Undergraduate Teaching Methods, American Sociological Association Meeting
- 1971-72      Advisory Editor, Sociometry
- 1970      Visiting Associate Professor of Sociology, University of Nevada, Reno
- 1970      Chair session on Social Psychology, Eastern Sociological Society Mtg.
- 1969-70      Papers Committee of the Eastern Sociological Society
- 1963-64      Nominating Committee of the Eastern Sociological Society

1963 Curriculum Consultant for Florida Atlantic University

1958-60 Research Consultant to WGBH-TV (Channel 2), Cambridge

Subjects Taught:

Dartmouth College: Introductory Sociology, Social Stratification, Social Research Methods, Marriage and the Family, Race and Minority Group Relations, Conflict and Violence in the Family, Population, and Survey Research Techniques.

Dartmouth Medical School: Responsible for 1/4 of lectures in first year psychiatry course for medical students.

Tufts University: Introductory Sociology, Research Methods, Social Problems, Family, and Graduate Seminary in Sociological Theory.

Boston University: Combined course in Principles & Research Methods for upperclass students, Population, and Urban Sociology.

Program and Committee Experience at Dartmouth College:

- 1984-86 Fraternity Review Board for Minimum Standards
- 1984-87 Steering Committee for the Sloan Foundation-Macintosh Grant
- 1981-83; 90-92 Director of Freshman Seminars
- 1980-83; 85-89 Executive Committee of the Faculty
- 1980-83 Building Committee for Rockefeller Center for the Social Sciences
- 1979-81 Director of Evaluation for Project Cork, Department of Psychiatry, Dartmouth Medical School
- 1976-78 Chair, Divisional Committee on Computing in the Social Sciences
- 1974-77 Chair and member of the Tucker Council
- 1974-77 Director of Project IMPRESS
- 1971-73 Chair, Department of Sociology
- 1969-71 Vice Chair, Department of Sociology
- 1966-67 Acting Chair, Department of Sociology
- 1965-88 Director of Sociology Laboratory

