

QUELLED

CARMEN BRADY

Quelled

to a Nexus:

This is the seal over my heart,

A nexus to Carmel.

Stepping out of Decemberland

From seven winters quelled.

Life-beat arrival song,

Revival #1.

Coming into my garden unfolding,

Springtime has just begun.

This is a bridge from winter to spring,

From gloom of desolate cold

To my garden of fruitful things

Of Honey blossoms scrolled.

Sweet fragrance of bold messages untold

Begin to breeze by unrolled

My nexus of Carmel unfolds

Next to this River full of gold!

Panning for Inklings within I'm sold

by a future with you, behold:

a rhythm less life-beat cajoled
From seven winters quelled, I'm told
My song of joy springs into view,
Of garden two-steps with you anew...

My fruitful soul
Of gold is whole,

This is the seal I choose to hold.
