CRIMINOLOGY AND LAW
NEW

Neither Angels nor Demons
Women, Crime, and Victimization
Kathleen Ferraro

A provocative study of the complex relationship between domestic violence and women’s crime

“[This book offers] a more complete picture of intimate partner violence, helping to shed light on not only the private or the public, but also on how the two are so deeply interconnected. If you want a good analysis and discussion of the contextual, structural, and social forces that underlie domestic violence, then this book is an important one to read.” — The Law and Politics Book Review

Paper, 344 pp. • 978-1-55553-663-3 • $26.00

Sex Offenses and the Men Who Commit Them
An Assessment of Sex Offenders on Probation
Michelle Meloy

A surprising and provocative reevaluation of community efforts to police sex offenders on probation

“This book presents an unprecedented empirical examination of sex offenders and our society’s legal responses to their crimes. It combines an empirical analysis of the factors related to recidivism for a group of sex offenders on probation along with interview narratives from the offenders themselves…. The research presented here by Dr. Meloy should be required reading for policy makers and practitioners alike.”

—Ronet Bachman, Professor, Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice, University of Delaware

Paper, 160 pp. • 978-1-55553-654-1 • $19.95

NEW

Criminal Justice Research and Practice
Diverse Voices from the Field
Edited by Susan L. Miller, with foreword by Claire M. Renzetti

Brings together essays on criminal justice theory, research, and hands-on experience through the lens of diversity issues

“Equal parts engaging and informative, Criminal Justice Research and Practice goes a long way toward helping us understand the tasks of activists, researchers, and other professionals who devote their careers to achieving a fairer and more effective criminal justice system, and to humanizing the people whose criminal experiences we seek to understand.”

—Jeanne Flavin, Fordham University and co-editor of Race, Gender and Punishment: From Colonialism to the War on Terror

Paper, 272 pp. • 978-1-55553-685-5 • $26.00
NEW

Freeing Tammy
Women, Drugs, and Incarceration
Jody Raphael
The latest volume in the popular trilogy of books about women, poverty, and violence
“Part great journalism and part thorough research, Jody Raphael’s book is an inspirational story of resilience and redemption wrapped in a deeply disturbing indictment of America’s destructive response to women and their children trapped in the cycle of sexual violence, drugs, and imprisonment.”
—Peter Edelman, Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center
Paper, 232 pp. • 978-1-55553-673-2 • $22.00

Listening to Olivia
Violence, Poverty, and Prostitution
Jody Raphael
The harrowing story of a woman’s descent into prostitution and addiction, the remarkable tale of her recovery, and an exposé of the global trafficking industry
Paper, 312 pp. • 978-1-55553-596-4 • $24.95

Saving Bernice
Battered Women, Welfare, and Poverty
Jody Raphael
The story of Bernice, a former welfare mother and survivor of domestic violence, and her arduous journey to escape from, and ultimately triumph over, years of battering, poverty, and welfare
Paper, 184 pp. • 978-1-55553-438-7 • $19.95

From Madness to Mutiny
Why Mothers Are Running from the Family Courts — and What Can Be Done about It
Amy Neustein and Michael Lesher
A powerful exposé of the family court system’s prejudice against mothers trying to protect their sexually abused children
Paper, 316 pp. • 978-1-55553-656-5 • $19.95

Prices subject to change without notice
Welcome To Hell
Letters and Writings from Death Row
Edited by Jan Arriens, with foreword by Helen Prejean, and introduction by Clive Stafford Smith

The second edition includes new chapters that focus in particular on how inmates, knowing that the only realistic alternative to death is a life sentence without parole, cope with long periods of imprisonment in a hostile system that remorselessly seeks to take their lives. The additional material also gives insight into the ways in which death row prisoners flower as human beings despite their harsh, isolated, and traumatic environment.

Paper, 304 pp. 17 illus. • 978-1-55553-636-7 • $20.00

Killing as Punishment
Reflections on the Death Penalty in America
Hugo Adam Bedau

One of the most respected (and ardent) opponents of the death penalty collects his highly acclaimed essays on capital punishment.

“As with any of Hugo Adam Bedau’s works, Killing as Punishment is extremely well written and thought provoking.”
—Criminal Justice Review

Cloth, 256 pp. • 978-1-55553-595-7 • $29.95

Hot Shots and Heavy Hits
Tales of an Undercover Drug Agent
Paul Doyle

A riveting first-hand account of life as an undercover drug agent

“What makes Paul Doyle’s book different from other police memoirs is that it is suffused with compassion. The writing is hard and direct except where leavened with good humor and deep feeling for the unfortunate of the world. This is a book that should be handed to everyone everywhere in law enforcement or to anyone who wants to understand how men and women in the profession can keep their heads above the dark waters of crime, addiction, corruption.”
—Frank McCourt, author of Angela’s Ashes and ’Tis

Paper, 240 pp. • 978-1-55553-649-7 • $17.95

In the Company of Men
Male Dominance and Sexual Harassment
Edited by James E. Gruber and Phoebe Morgan

This interdisciplinary collection of original essays provides cutting edge research from an international perspective on the links between male domination and the perpetuation of sexual harassment

Paper, 320 pp. • 978-1-55553-637-4 • $24.95

Prices subject to change without notice
The Biblical Truth about America’s Death Penalty
Dale S. Recinella
A hard look at Hebrew and Christian scriptures as they relate to today’s death penalty practices

“Recinella isn’t looking to dodge controversy in his book, The Biblical Truth About America’s Death Penalty. In more than 400 pages of research, analysis, interpretations of original Greek scriptures, indexes, and a bibliography, he reaches a conclusion bound to rile many people, namely that America’s death penalty is incompatible and inconsistent with Biblical teachings.”

—The Florida Bar Journal

Paper, 320 pp. • 978-1-55553-632-9 • $24.95

Emotional Trials
Moral Dilemmas of Women Criminal Defense Attorneys
Cynthia Siemsen
This insightful volume offers a unique lens through which to view the work lives of women criminal defense attorneys and sheds new light on how they resolve and survive the moral dilemmas and emotional stress of their jobs

“Siemsen’s work is ambitious, she seeks to explain and explore the connection between ideologies, emotion, and how women defenders reorganize their personalities—nay, even their identities—that allows them to stay committed to criminal defense.”

—Women & Criminal Justice

Paper, 240 pp. • 978-1-55553-614-5 • $20.00

Dancing to the Concertina’s Tune
A Prison Teacher’s Memoir
Jan Walker
An honest and compassionate account of a teacher’s experiences behind bars

Paper, 192 pp. • 978-1-55553-601-5 • $19.95

Murder at Mount Hermon
The Unsolved Killing of Headmaster Elliott Speer
Craig Walley
This suspenseful account solves a longtime New England murder mystery: the shotgun killing of Elliott Speer, the charismatic young headmaster of the Mount Hermon School for Boys in Northfield, Massachusetts

Cloth, 160 pp. 8 illus. • 978-1-55553-618-3 • $24.95

Prices subject to change without notice
NEW

The Bitter Fruit of American Justice
International and Domestic Resistance to the Death Penalty

Alan W. Clarke, Laurelyn Whitt

A study of the increasing international opposition to and growing domestic disaffection from the death penalty in America

“Essential reading for those concerned with current and emerging issues in America’s use of the death penalty.” —Margaret Vandiver, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Memphis

Northeastern University Press • Cloth, 280 pp. • 978-1-55553-682-4 • $35.00

NEW

The International Judge
An Introduction to the Men and Women Who Decide the World’s Cases

Daniel Terris, Cesare P.R. Romano, Leigh Swigart, with foreword by Sonia Sotomayor

An interdisciplinary introduction to international judges and their work

“This is a timely and interesting book on the judges who sit on international and transnational courts. I warmly commend this well written account of the most important issues facing those judges and the courts on which they sit. It is essential reading for practitioners, teachers and students who are interested in global justice.” —Richard J. Goldstone, former justice of the Constitutional Court of South Africa and former chief prosecutor for the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda

Brandeis University Press • Cloth, 328 pp. • 978-1-58465-666-1 • $45.00

Send Submissions to:
Phyllis D. Deutsch, Editor-in-Chief
Richard Pult, Acquisitions Editor
University Press of New England,
One Court Street, Suite 250
• Lebanon, NH 03766 •
(603) 448-1533

To see these and more UPNE Criminology titles please visit us at: www.upne.com/subject/LW.html