French Studies Majors must include one course from French 20 through 25 (to be completed by the end of the junior year).

________________________________    Term: ____________

NOTE: Two of the French L.S.A.+ and/or F.S.P. courses may count toward the major.

During their senior year, as their culminating experience, French Studies Majors must take either French 78: Senior Major Workshop or, with special permission, an upper-level French course (numbered French 40 or above).

________________________________    Term: ____________

Students taking an upper-level French course as their culminating experience are required to supplement the regular reading with extra materials chosen in consultation with the instructor, and to write a research or critical paper of at least twenty pages. The major card must be approved by the French Major Adviser.
