

7th Symposium

12.10. – 13.10. 2007
at Campus Westend

Integration of Information Services into University Infrastructures

The University Library of the J.W.Goethe University of Frankfurt announces its 7th Symposium for information specialists on Friday 12th October and Saturday 13th October

Presentations and discussions will consider:

- . integrated versus cooperative models
- . single-unit operations, central or de-centralized faculty organisations
- . outsourcing services versus own organisation/effort
- . institutional repository versus discipline-based repository
- . information supply in the era of "Google print"

Our current line-up of speakers :

Kurt de Belder, University Library, Leiden
Lars Björnshauge, University Library, Lund
Arndt Bode, Technical University, Munich
Ruth Maria Bousonville, Lovells, Frankfurt a.M.
Graham Bulpitt, Library Services, Kingston University, London
Kenneth Frazier, Library Systems, Madison, Wisconsin
Ronald Milne, The British Library, London
Gerhard Schneider, Computer Centre, University Freiburg i.B.
John Unsworth, Graduate School, University of Illinois

Moderator: Jeff Garrett, Northwestern University Library, Evanston

More details about the programme, registration procedure and dinner in Frankfurt's historical cellars will be up on our website shortly!

Immediate enquiries? Contact: Lindsey Fairhurst
E-mail: l.fairhurst@ub.uni-frankfurt.de Tel:++49 (0)69 798-39-231