

Daniel Billin is the Donor Relations Officer for Corporate and Foundation Relations. He finds funding opportunities for faculty and programs across the Arts and Sciences, and drafts grant proposals and grant reports. Dan also provides donor stewardship, research and writing services, and database and web-site support. He was a newspaper reporter for 18 years before coming to Dartmouth in 2004. He has a B.A. in communications from Brigham Young University, with major emphasis in print journalism.