

Hollie Seiler is the Associate Director for Corporate and Foundation Relations. Hollie brings over a decade of experience in nonprofit administration and previously supported public media stations at the University of Alaska (KUAC) and the University of Washington (KUOW). She most recently joins our team from UW Medicine, where she supported fundraising initiatives at the Cancer Vaccine institute and the Institute for Protein Design.

Hollie is originally from North Pole, Alaska, and a graduate of the University of Alaska, Fairbanks. She holds a B.A. in broadcast journalism.