Teaching Positions
Dartmouth College Child Care Center (DCCCC)

VIRTUAL HIRING EVENT – June 3, 2021 1:00PM-6:00PM

Dartmouth College Child Care Center is in Hanover, New Hampshire and committed to promoting the growth of the whole child. Teaching teams work in cooperation with families to produce a warm, safe environment in which parents and teachers are supported and children are respected and encouraged as individuals with unique and diverse family backgrounds. We care for children from birth to five years.

DCCCC is interested in talking to early childhood teachers or providers who would like to join us at the Center. We are currently hiring for, Lead Teachers, Teachers, Assistant Teachers, and Float positions with increased starting rates up to $21.25 per hour for Lead Teachers and other incentives possible. Come work with us to promote children’s care, developmental and educational needs!

Please contact us if you have the following skills or experience, and are interested in a child-care position:

- One year of relevant child-care experience
- Good communication and interpersonal skills, particularly in relation to pre-school children and their parents
- Understanding of child development needs and how they may be met
- A warm, friendly demeanor
- Ability and willingness to work a flexible work schedule
- High school GED with college level courses in Early Childhood Education (or ability to obtain)
- Nine college credits in Early Childhood Education, including three college credits in Child Growth and Development (or ability to obtain)
