

Important Reminders:

- Community Conversations with Interim Provost David Kotz - August 18 and September 22 @ 3:30pm

Higher Education News

Colleges Envisioned a Near-Normal Fall Semester. Then Came the Delta Variant. -

Some colleges are responding to a Covid surge by changing strategy.

Fitch Ratings Revises Outlook for U.S. Colleges and Universities to Stable

Post-COVID Optimism on College Finances -

75% of business officers express confidence in their institution's financial stability over the next decade; 75% say their institution is in better financial shape than it was a year ago.

The Complexities of Free College -

Nation-wide free college is more complicated than it sounds & there are better ways for the government to support low-income students.

A 'Trauma Informed' Return to Campus -

How one university is creating space for people to process the pandemic's damage.

The Pandemic May Have Changed International Recruiting Forever -

New tactics started as emergency measures, but could be a lasting way to keep enrollments up.

A Renewed U.S. Commitment to International Education -

Departments of Education and State pledge a "renewed" commitment to international education. Advocates hope this could be first step toward a federal international education strategy.

Could Political Rhetoric Turn to Campus Violence? -

College leaders should be ready for protests, provocations, and lone attacks.

NIL Era Brings Cautious Optimism to College-Town Businesses -

NCAA's decision to allow athletes to profit from use of their name, image, & likeness (NIL) came with a few restrictions and even less guidance.

What We Learned in the Pandemic About Graduate Training -

Three Covid-Inspired innovations shed light on what needs to change in graduate education.

The Pandemic Slowed Tuition Growth at Some Colleges. Will It Last? -

Sticker prices at several dozen of the country's priciest colleges stalled during the pandemic. But several are raising rates again.

Scarce Flights, Visa Issues Snarl Students' Plans to Reach U.S.

6 Things to Know About the New Title IX Guidance

Protections for LGBTQ+ Students - While the Office for Civil Rights' notice of interpretation likely won't bring monumental changes, institutions need to consider how they could be more equitable for LGBTQ+ students.

Students Favor Free College, Oppose Admissions Preferences - Survey reveals what education policy makers working on behalf of students need to know about solutions that students support for making college more affordable and equitable.

FAFSA Completion Falls 4.8% - Fewer students, especially low-income & minority students, are filling out the form.

The Future of the Physical Campus - As one university plans to sell or repurpose 1M sqft of campus space, experts discuss the role of in-person education as pandemic recedes.

A 'Breaking Point' in Campus Mental Health - Colleges struggle to respond to clusters of suicide.

The Culture War Has Come for Higher Ed - Now is the time for academic leaders to fight.

HR Officials Expect Increase in Hybrid/Remote Employees

Why You May Actually Want to Go Back to the Office

Navigating Vaccine Requirements for International Students - What foreign COVID vaccines should colleges accept? What protocols should be in place for international students who weren't able to be vaccinated at home prior to coming to campus?

Ivy+ News

Princeton Helps Invest Bond Proceeds With Diverse-Owned Firm

MIT and Harvard Agree to Transfer edX to Ed-Tech firm 2U - Two-part transaction would turn edX into a public benefit company while generously funding a nonprofit dedicated to strengthening the impact of digital learning.

With Gift from David Geffen, Yale's Drama School Goes Tuition-Free

Dartmouth News

Elizabeth Barlow Name Associate Provost for Institutional Research - Barlow will facilitate data-based decision making.

Frew and Ingalls to Serve as Interim Financial Officers - Interims appointed as Mike Wagner leaves Dartmouth for Williams VP position.

The Strategic Master Plan Is Now Available Online - Document will guide the institution's development for the next 30 years.