

Important Reminders:

- Community Conversations with Interim Provost David Kotz - October 13 & 27 @ 3:30pm
- Day in the Life: Talent Acquisition "Inclusive Hiring" - October 27 @ 10:30

Higher Education News

The Truth About Strategic Plans - What makes one a success and another a waste of time?

University Endowments Mint Billions in Golden Era of Venture Capital - Some endowments gained more than 50% but it's unclear if they will be able to hang onto those gains.

Harvard Moves Towards Divestment. What's Next? - Commitment to end indirect legacy investments in fossil fuels captured attention all over the world. Now higher ed officials & climate activists are contemplating what the decision might mean for them.

Fostering a Culture of Belonging in the Hybrid Workplace - Modern managers need to act as agents of meaning and purpose if they wish to retain their employees.

Colleges Seek Virtual Mental Health Services - New digital & telehealth options make it easier for students living off campus to access mental health resources.

A 'Flabbergasting' Decision - Abrupt end of Yale-NUS partnership offers lessons to colleges seeking global re-engagement.

3 Ways to Train Leaders and Why Your Campus Should - Administrators could benefit from leadership training. Here are pros/cons of different options.

Policing Religious Exemptions to Vaccines - As more colleges mandate COVID vaccines, the issue of policing requests for religious exemptions comes to the fore.

Enrollment Algorithms Are Contributing to the Crises of Higher Education

Judging a Degree by the Program, Not the College - Two new studies examine which degree programs at which institutions offer graduates the best chance of recouping their costs and repaying their loans.

3 Things New Federal Data Reveal About How Colleges Fared During the Pandemic

Colleges Still Obsess Over National Rankings. For Proof, Look at Their Strategic Plans.

Does Tenure Impede Diversity? - Yes, some scholars say, but they have ideas to fix that.

'U.S. News' Keeps ACT and SAT Scores in the Mix - for Now - Though many colleges are dropping their ACT & SAT requirements, test scores still count in the college rankings, but that might not hold true for much longer.

An 'Extremely Solvable' Problem - Millions of students face food insecurity & advocates say it's time for the government to step in.

Is Your Administration Building Obsolete? - A remote leadership team may be just one more viable aspect of the new normal in higher ed.

How COVID-19 Changed College Admissions - Common App finds colleges delayed deadlines & students were later with applications.

Ivy+ News

Stanford University Plans to Buy Struggling Catholic College's Campus

Notre Dame Commits to Carbon Neutrality by 2050

Penn Establishes the Center for Precision Engineering for Health with \$100 Million Commitment

New Center and Residence Hall Realizes Brown's Vision for Integrated Student Wellness Experience

Columbia Pledges That All Future Campus Construction Will Be Fossil Free

Landmark Gift Establishes Cornell Peter and Stephanie Nolan School of Hotel Administration - Historic $50M gift establishes school and provides scholarships to expand access for future hospitality business leaders.

Moody Foundation Grants \$100 Million to Rice University - New student center, endowment for student opportunity programs underwritten by historic gift.

Brown Launches Master's Program in Data-Enabled Computational Engineering and Science

Princeton Implements 'Supplier Diversity Action Plan' - University seeks to establish a more diverse supplier list.

Dartmouth News

Trustees Hold First In-Person Meeting Since Pandemic Began - Discussion focused on strategic goals, from the academic mission to student well-being.

Learning & Development Launches Inspiring Leaders Program - Inspiring Leaders is a self-paced certificate program designed for managers & individual contributors interested in cultivating their leadership skills & abilities.