

A TIME FOR VIGOROUS AND POSITIVE ACTION

JANUARY 14-31, 2014

VISIT WWW.DARTMOUTH.EDU/~MLK
FOR FULL SCHEDULE

Tuesday, January 14

Hopkins Center Panel
Community Health
4:30, Rockefeller 003, Free
Co-Sponsored by the Rockefeller Center for Public Policy

Friday, January 17

Hopkins Center Performance
"Hospital"
Los Angeles Poverty Department (LAPD)
* 8 pm, the Moore Theater, Hopkins Center, January 17 & 18 •
General admission $25/33/40 • Dartmouth students $10
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Saturday, January 18

Hopkins Center Film
DALLAS BUYERS CLUB
A Bracingly Modern Take on a Classic Tale
* 7pm, LOWE, Black Family Visual Arts Center
General admission $8 • Dartmouth ID/Children 12 & under $5
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Hopkins Center Performance "Hospital"

Los Angeles Poverty Department (LAPD)
* 8 pm, the Moore Theater, Hopkins Center, January 17 & 18 •
General admission $25/33/40 • Dartmouth students $10
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Sunday, January 19

Community Faith Celebration
with Father Greg Boyle
2-3:30 pm, Rollins Chapel

Monday, January 20

MLK Day Employee Celebration Breakfast
with Professor Ella LJ Edmondson Bell, Ph.D.
* 8:30-10 am, Hanover Inn, Grand Ballroom
Pre-registration required at www.dartmouth.edu/~hrs or
(603) 646-3411

The 50th Anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr.'s Speech at Dartmouth
Towards Freedom: An Audiorecording of King's Speech with Images from the Civil Rights Movement
9 am-3 pm, 105 Dartmouth Hall

Tucker Foundation Service Opportunity
MLK Day of Service: Dartmouth Gives Back
10 am-4 pm, Paganucci Lounge, Class of 1953 Commons

Student Forum on Global Learning
with opening address by President Phil Hanlon, '77
11:30 am-3:30 pm, Haldeman & Kemeny Halls. Sessions run throughout the day; full presentation abstracts available online. Visit www.dartmouth.edu/global/studentforum for more information

Dartmouth Alliance for Children of Color Playdate
Sharing Dreams for the Future
3:30-5 pm, Cutter-Shabazz Hall, mural room
Parents or guardians must remain with their children

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Presents
22nd Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Candlelight Vigil Procession
with speaker Professor Russell Rickford
5 pm, gather at Cutter-Shabazz Hall, first floor

Keynote Address by Journalist John Quiñones
with remarks by President Phil Hanlon '77 and Jalil Mustafa Bishop '14, President of the Afro-American Society
* 7 pm, the Moore Theater, Hopkins Center for the Arts
Reception to follow at the Top of the Hop
*Free tickets available at the Hopkins Center Box Office beginning Jan. 14 at noon for those with Dartmouth student, faculty, or staff I.D.; beginning Jan. 16 at 10 am for the general public. Four-ticket limit per person. Ticket holders must be in their seats by 6:45 pm, after which time empty seats become available to those without tickets.

Tuesday, January 21

Tucker Foundation Lunch Discussion
What Matters to Me and Why?
Claudia Anguiano, Lecturer in Speech
12 noon-1 pm, Tucker Foundation Living Room •
Light lunch provided

Thursday, January 23

Rockefeller Center:
Cass Sunstein "Free by Default"
4:30-6:00 pm, Filene Auditorium

Friday, January 24

Student Performance Showcase
LIFTED: A Celebration of Unity and Song
9:30 pm, Collis Common Ground

Saturday, January 25

WADJDA
*7pm, LOWE, Black Family Visual Arts Center
The first feature film shot entirely in Saudi Arabia tells the story of a young girl living in Riyadh determined to raise money to buy a bike in a society that sees bicycles as dangerous to a girl's virtue.
General admission $8 • Dartmouth ID/Children 12 & under $5 •
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Sunday, January 26

DFS: 12 YEARS A SLAVE
*7pm, LOWE, Black Family Visual Arts Center
Based on the memoir of freeman Solomon Northup, who was abducted in Washington, D.C. in 1841 and ultimately delivered to a cruel and mentally unbalanced cotton grower, a figure of both horror and pathos who comes to embody the true savagery—and insanity—of slavery.
General admission $8 • Dartmouth ID/Children 12 & under $5 •
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Monday, January 27

Intergroup Dialogue as Vigorous and Positive Action
9-11am, DCAL • Join us for a morning seminar with Dr. Kristie A. Ford, Associate Professor of Sociology and Director of the Intergroup Relations Program at Skidmore College. Dr. Ford will share research findings that evidence Intergroup Dialogue as a unique and transformative educational method that engages students to explore issues of identity, diversity, and inequity while building skills for and commit to social responsibility and action.

Tuesday, January 28

Institutional Diversity & Equity Film Presentation
Fire in the Blood
12 noon-2 pm, 324 Blunt Alumni Center
Brown bag lunch; beverages and dessert provided

Wednesday, January 29

The Hood Museum of Art Presents
ACTIVIST PHOTOGRAPHERS LEADING FOR CHANGE
5-6:30 pm, Hood Museum of Art
Join the Hood Museum of Art's Deputy Director Juliette Bianco and Curator of Academic Programming Katherine Hart in a discussion about contemporary photographers who work to affect social, political, and environmental change. Participation is open to all, but space is limited to 20 people—please be sure to sign up in advance! Contact: nicole.gilbert@dartmouth.edu or 603-646-9388

Thursday, January 30

Community Lunch Discussion
12 noon-1:30 pm, Cutter-Shabazz Lounge •
Light lunch provided

HOW TO SURVIVE A PLAGUE

*7pm, LOWE, Black Family Visual Arts Center
With no scientific training, self-made AIDS activists infiltrated the pharmaceutical industry and helped identify promising new drugs, turning what was a death sentence into a manageable condition.
General admission $8 • Dartmouth ID/Children 12 & under $5 •
Tickets on sale now at hop.dartmouth.edu, in person at the Hop Box Office, and 30 minutes before start

Friday, January 31

Martin Luther King Jr. Social Justice Awards and Honoree Panel Discussion
4:30 pm, Collis Common Ground • Reception to follow

FOR A FULL LIST OF
EVENTS, PLEASE VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT
WWW.DARTMOUTH.EDU/~MLK

