Dear Dartmouth Class of 2024--

You are all invited to apply for Humanities 1 (Fall Term 2020, Dialogues with the Classics) and Humanities 2 (Winter Term 2021, The Modern Labyrinth). This is a selective, interdisciplinary, two-term sequence for up to 100 first-year students.

Apply for Humanities 1 & 2 if you want to begin your Dartmouth education by engaging texts that have profoundly influenced cultures across the world from antiquity to the present day. These team-taught courses feature professors from various departments (e.g., History, Government, Religion, Classics, English, French, German, Spanish) who lead students in lively discussions of texts from many historical periods, national traditions, and literary and artistic genres. We seek students eager to meet the profound intellectual challenges these texts present.

*If you are accepted into the sequence, you may choose to enroll in either one or both courses.
*HUM 1 completes the First-Year Writing 5 requirement; HUM 2 satisfies the First-Year Seminar requirement.

Learn more about HUM here, and please contact us with any questions.

Applications are due by 5:00 PM (EST) on Friday, July 24th, 2020.
You will be notified by email of the status of your application in the first part of August.
