

Your major plan has been submitted to the Comparative Literature Program and is pending approval. Your major is NOT yet declared or officially filed.
The first step in becoming a Comparative Literature major is to contact and meet with the Chair.

Please visit the Comparative Literature website at <http://www.dartmouth.edu/~complit/> to learn more about the COLT major and to download the major application form. You may review the status of your major request on your Online Major/Minor Dashboard on the Banner menu.
