Dear Class of 2018:

Planning for commencement exercises has already begun. We hope this tentative schedule will be helpful as you begin to make arrangements to celebrate this special occasion.

Accommodations

The College will have residence hall accommodations available for approximately 1,600 families, guests, and alumni from Friday, June 8, until Sunday, June 10. As undergraduate residences, they do not offer the amenities found in a hotel, but their convenience to on-campus events makes them a popular housing option. Information regarding on-campus housing will be sent to families in winter 2018.

We strongly recommend that you arrange accommodations for commencement weekend as soon as possible. Local hotels fill up very quickly and many begin taking reservations for June 2018 in June 2017. Please note that the Hanover Inn is reserved for trustees, honorary degree recipients, and the 50-year reunion class.

For more information about lodging visit dartgo.org/visitors.

Announcements

Graduation announcements may be purchased, March through June, at the Dartmouth Co-op.

Accessibility

Graduating students with disabilities who are unable or would find it challenging to participate in rehearsals or process from Leede Arena to the ceremony should contact the Undergraduate Deans Office at (603) 646-2243.

Accommodations for guests with disabilities are available for major commencement events, but we ask that you contact us in advance. Visit dartgo.org/accessibility for full details. Guests using wheelchairs should submit a request for the accessible seating section via the website or by contacting Conferences and Events at (603) 646-3749 or commencement@dartmouth.edu. In order to make the best arrangements possible, we request that you contact us by May 15, 2018.

I look forward to seeing you,

Matthew Goldstein, 2018 Class President
