Copyright Acknowledgement for Reserve Materials to be Posted Online

Dartmouth faculty are expected to follow copyright law, Title 17 of the U.S. Code, while fulfilling the core mission of teaching, research, and extending knowledge and creativity in all areas. Dartmouth faculty must make a Fair Use determination for online works placed on reserve based on their pedagogical goals. Please refer to the copyright guidelines to assist in making this Fair Use determination.

If you are requesting reserve items to be placed online, please check the appropriate boxes below. Any forms with online readings that are incomplete will be returned and those online items not processed until the Fair Use determination has been made by faculty.

- A. By checking below I am indicating that I have determined that the requested materials to be posted online qualify as educational Fair Use.

Fair Use

- B. By checking below I am indicating that I have determined that certain specified requested materials to be posted online do not qualify as educational Fair Use.

Please indicate in the ***middle column if the requested online reading is not covered by Fair Use and the library needs to seek copyright permission.
