

Down the Rabbit Hole: Alice's Adventures in Rauner

Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland has been a perennial seller for over 140 years. The absurdly whimsical tale has spawned new adaptations and interpretations for nearly every generation. This exhibition celebrates this year's Winter Carnival theme by examining some of the many wonderful editions and adaptations of Lewis Carroll's classic children's story collected in Rauner Library.

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland served as the Winter Carnival theme at least once before: in 1973, "Through a Frosted Looking-Glass" inspired dozens of snow sculptures across campus based on John Tenniel and Lewis Carroll's collaboration.

The exhibition was curated by Patti Houghton, Barbara Krieger and Jay Satterfield and was on display February 9 - March 31, 2007.
